Where Fashion Does Business :

The Organizer

The event is organised by Unioncamere Piemonte (Regional Union of the Chambers of Commerce of Piedmont, Turin, Italy) with the support of the Turin Chamber of Commerce.

Both organisations are members of the Enterprise Europe Network (EEN) and collaborate closely with the Network's Textile Sector Group. This group of sector experts works to connect international fashion and textile companies, fostering new business opportunities and cross-border partnerships. Our mission is to help companies find the right partners for joint projects, explore new markets, and exchange knowledge, ideas, innovation and inspiration.

The Enterprise Europe Network \(EEN\) is the world's largest support network for small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) with international ambitions. Co-financed by the European Commission, it operates in more than 40 countries through over 500 selected partner organisations, all committed to helping entrepreneurs grow and innovate globally.

This prestigious B2B event brings together textile companies and innovative, buyers, retailers, fashion designers, sustainability-driven brands from around the world, covering the entire textile, fashion and sports ecosystem.
